1. The Soviet Zone German police school in Havelberg (N 53/Y 97) * consists of seven Bereitschaften which are to train officer candidates of the Soviet Zone German police of the land of Brandenburg.
  - a. Bereitschaften B, C and D train artillery officers and are equipped with infantry guns and light field howitzers of type "18".
  - b. Bereitschaften E, F and G train infantry officers and are equipped with light infantry weapons and 20-mm AA guns.
  - c. The 7th Bereitschaft is organized like a signal communication company of the former German Armed Forces.
2. The Treuenbrietzen (N 53/E 50) school on the road Treuenbrietzen-Jueterbog is an officer candidate school of the Soviet Zone German police to train infantry officers. **
3. Trainees at the two schools average 20 years of age. Instructors are officers of the former German Armed Forces.

[Redacted]

- * There has been no previous information concerning any VP school or Bereitschaft in Havelberg. The word "Bereitschaft" was formerly used to designate a company, as seems to be the case here. It has long been used, however, to designate a training unit of about 1000 men.
- ** A VP Bereitschaft, and not a school, is known to exist at Treuenbrietzen.
